Ray's Remarks:

Hello dear brethren,

It is great to be back home and to have spent last Sunday with you all once again. We sure missed you all while we were away, but dad and I had a very profitable trip to Zambia.

While there, we were able to visit both schools and everything is going well at both in Livingstone and in Ndola. Our teachers are doing a great job in training the students and in doing their respective works related to the school. We are very blessed to have them all.

It sounds like the clothing give away was a huge success last Saturday. Thanks to all who helped out and made it so successful. It is always a great thing to share our faith and love in Christ with others and to help them to see Jesus in our actions and words. This is a great example to our community of our interest and care for their souls. Let's all pray that this work might bear some fruit in the near future.

We started our second quarter of the year at the BIM today. The guys were all back and ready to go. Continue to pray for our current students at the BIM. They are doing such a great job and we are proud of each and everyone of them. We are so privileged to be a part of such a great work that trains men to know God's word and to proclaim it better. God has certainly blessed His people at Kansas Expressway.

It's hard to believe that we are half way through the month of October. Where has 2024 gone? I hope we are all doing our best to continue putting God first in all things and giving Him our best. We serve such a loving and caring God, He certainly is worthy of our best offerings. So let's make sure that we do not grow weary in doing good and that we continue to give God our very best.

I look forward to seeing you all tonight for our mid-week service. What better opportunity could we have or place could we be tonight, than with our fellow brothers and sisters and worshipping our God? Thank you all for doing your part to make our church family the best it can be. I love you all and God bless!

Good Citizens

Immigration and citizenship are a hot topic in our country today. Why do many people want to come here and become a citizen of the United States? Is it for freedom, political asylum, or the opportunity for a better life? Currently, Christians have a dual citizenship. We are citizens of the earth while having our citizenship in heaven. (Philippians 3:21). Unfortunately, as with any community or country, there are good citizens and not-so-good citizens. What does it take to be a good citizen in the kingdom of heaven while living here on earth? Here are a few of the characteristics Christians must have to be a good citizen:

- Respect: Respect Leadership, Others, and Yourself. (Heb. 13:17; 1 Peter 2:7; Phil. 2:3; 1 Cor. 3:16)
- Compliance: Obey the Laws and Rules. (John 14:15; 1 John 2:3; 1 Thes. 4:11; James 1:22)
- Participation: Engage in the Activities of the Church. (Rom. 12:10-13; 1 Cor. 15:58; Col 3:17; 2 Tim. 2:15; Heb. 10:24-25)
- Stewardship: Protecting and Caring for the God's Blessings. (Luke 16; 2-13; 1 Cor. 4:1-2; 2 Cor. 9:6-7; 1 Pet. 4:10)
- Responsibility: Being Accountable for One's Own Actions. (Rom. 4:12; Gal. 6:5,7; 1 Tim. 5:8)
- Compassion: Showing Compassion for One's Neighbor. (Matt. 9:36; 25:34-36; Luke 10:29-37; Rom. 15:1)
- Integrity: Honest and Trustworthy in One's Personal Dealings. (Luke 3:12-13; Eph. 4:25; Col. 3:9-10; Titus 2:7)

Although this list is not exhaustive, we must continually strive to develop and grow them into our character while diligently seeking God through faith. (Hebrews 11:6)
